

Brief Resume

She had worked in the Central University of Punjab, Bathinda as Dean & Head, Deptt. of Education, Director IQAC, Director, International Students, Chairperson, Student Counselling Cell, Chairperson, Placement cell, Chairperson, Institute Innovation Council (MHRD) and Nodal Officer, NIRF.

She is also former Purchase Officer, Dean, School of Education, Dean School of Global Relations, Dean, School of Languages and Comparative Literature and Chairperson, Sexual Harassment Cell (Internal Complaint Committee) at Central University of Punjab.

She worked previously as Professor at Punjabi University Patiala in the Deptt. of Education, as Director International students and Provost and has also worked as Professor & Dean, Faculty of Education on Deputation basis in Lovely Professional University, Punjab for six years.

She graduated from Punjab Agricultural University and did Bachelor's, Master's and doctorate in Education from GNDU, Amritsar.

She has also worked as member of core committee of curriculum of NCTE. She has published more than seventy-five research paper and guided about twenty research scholars at doctorate level. Twelve books are published to her credit besides, standardizing twenty-four psychological tests and editing research papers for reputed journals of education and psychology. She is visiting Professor of KMUTT, Bangkok.

She has been awarded Professional Involvement Award by PLAI (1995) and Best Educationist Award by Indian Psychometric and Educational Research Association (2009), and Prof. V P Sharma Award for contribution in education by PLAI (2011), IPERA award for Best Women Educationist (2014) and IATE Award (2019).

She has attended more than fifty national and international conferences and seminars. She has also visited wolver Hampton University, UK, Nanyang University, Singapore. She has visited Kenya, Tanzania, Rwanda, Burundi, Malaysia, Singapore, Dubai, Bhutan, Nepal, UK, and Thailand for attending educational fairs and conferences.

She has worked for major and minor projects of UGC, ICSSR, MHRD and universities. She has also worked on the project of PMMMNMTT (MHRD) and received grant of about 5 crores. She has developed 320 e content modules for B.Ed. programme in Hindi, Punjabi and English.

She has acted as resource persons in different universities, institutions and academic staff colleges. She has also worked as curriculum developer for B.Ed., M.Ed. and M.Phil. / Ph.D. programmes. She has conducted workshops on curriculum Development at national level for social science, science and language teachers of different colleges and universities.

She is professionally associated with Indian Science Congress , as Executive member of Praachi Psycho Cultural Research Association, Executive member of Psycho-linguistic Association, All India Association for Educational Research, Indian Psychometric and Educational Research Association, Council of Behavioural Scientists, Indian Psychological Association, Chairperson of India chapter of International Professional Development Association(UK) and President (HQ) of Global Educational Research Association.

She is especially interested in bringing quality in education for which she is working on curriculum development, e-content development, pedagogical changes, educational research and women education.